

Christopher Jankowski, Ph.D.
Director of Graduate Advising and Assessment
Director of Postdoctoral Teaching Effectiveness
Academic Professional, School of Math

Biosketch

Dr. Christopher Jankowski received his Ph.D. in Mathematics from the University of Pennsylvania in 2009 and joined the Georgia Tech faculty as an Academic Professional in 2016. Here, he has taken charge of many administrative and teaching responsibilities at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Since the inception of formal math course coordination at the Institute, he has coordinated Introduction to Linear Algebra (Math 1553). As Director of Postdoctoral Teaching Effectiveness, he serves as a teaching mentor and an organizer of professional development events for postdoctoral faculty in mathematics. In his role as Director of Graduate Advising and Assessment, Dr. Jankowski is the main coursework advisor for MS Math and PhD Math students. For three years, he was the lead organizer or co-lead organizer for the School of Math's largest outreach event. He has an excellent teaching record, consistently receiving scores of at least 4.7 out of 5 for Overall Effectiveness.